

CWEA SF Bay Section's
Professional Development Committee (PDC) and
Students & Young Professionals Committee (SYPC) present:

Leadership Book Club

Event Launch: Thurs. April 22, 2021, 6p-7p

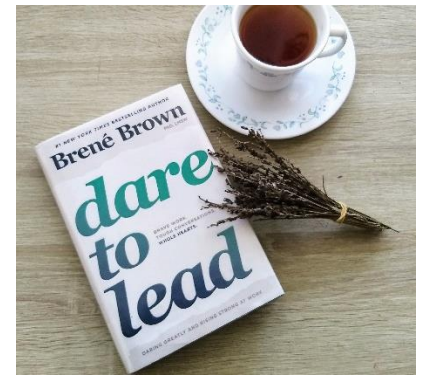

Join us in our inaugural book club to explore the elements of leadership and how to apply them in our professional settings.

Who Should Participate?

Students, professionals, and aspiring leaders of all levels interested in exploring leadership.

When and Where?

This will be done on a quarterly basis. One book will be explored at each meeting. The book club will meet virtually until conditions allow in-person meetings. PDC and SYPC will take turns co-facilitating the discussions. Kevin Jim and Claire O'Brien from PDC will co-facilitate this first meeting.

What Book Should I Read?

For the first book, we will be discussing "Dare to Lead" by Brené Brown.

RSVP HERE To Receive Zoom Link!

Where Can I Obtain the Book?

It is available for purchase online or can be borrowed from local public libraries, including:

- San Francisco Public Library
- Alameda County Public Library
- Oakland Public Library*
- Berkeley Public Library*
- Contra Costa County Public Library
- South San Francisco Public Library
- City of Richmond Public Library
- Mountain View Public Library*
- San Jose Public Library
- Hayward Public Library

Denotes library that offers cards to any CA resident*

Note: Each public library listed above has been hyperlinked to information on how to get a library card from that library.

Questions?

Contact Kevin Jim (kevin.jim@ebmud.com) or Claire O'Brien (Claire.o'brien@lee-ro.com).